MINISTER'S MESSAGE

The Beatitudes of Revelation (2/5)

In the midst of John writing about the destructive nature of the Roman Empire through the signs of a dragon and a false prophet (Rev. 16:13-14), John takes a moment to record these words. He says in Revelation 16:15, "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame." It may not be abundantly clear who is speaking here. But in light of Jesus using this imagery of Himself coming like a thief in the night (Lk. 12:39-40) and was repeated by the apostles in reference to Him (1 Thess. 5:2-4; 2 Pet. 3:10), it appears that this is Jesus speaking.

Our Lord said, as He did to the church in Sardis (Rev. 3:4) that blessed are those who keep their garments undefiled. To not defile your garments is a figurative way of saying to keep yourself pure. It is the same thing He said in the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount. Where He said, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" (Matt. 5:8). We are called to live in a pure way (1 Tim. 4:12). We are called to keep our minds on things that are pure (Phil. 4:8). How does one accomplish this? We are told that the way to accomplish this is to keep our noses and minds in His book. The Psalmist writes in Psalm 119:9, "How can a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed according to Your Word."
