

MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Working Through James (2/5)

In James 2, James writes about two prevalent topics. He addresses partiality in vv. 1-13, and he addresses the relationship between faith and works in vv. 14-26. Hopefully, this study will force us to engage our minds in the Word and propel us to be as impartial as God is (Rom. 2:11) and to display our inward faith through our outward works.

1. We are not to hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ with _____ (2:1)
2. The expectation of the rich is that the poor serve as their _____ (2:3)
3. God has chosen the poor of this world to be _____ and _____ (2:5)
4. James called the commandment to love your neighbor as yourself the _____ law (2:8)
5. If you strove to keep the entire Law perfectly but stumble in one point, you are _____ of all (2:10)
6. What triumphs judgment? _____ (2:13)
7. James says that _____ without works is profitless (2:14)
8. James says that _____ without works is _____ (2:17,20)
9. Who believes in God and trembles? _____ (2:19)
10. Abraham was _____ by _____ when he attempted to offer Isaac as a sacrifice (2:21)
11. Abraham also _____ God and it was accounted to him as _____ (2:23)
12. A man is justified by _____ and not by _____ only (2:24)

Family News and Prayer Requests

JOE FRIANT is doing well from his injury... “thumbs up” to that!

SAM COLLETTE remained a patient in the New Braunfels Rehab Hospital, room 405 this past week. He is scheduled to leave rehab today, but is unsure to where he will go at this time.

CHARLES SURFACE received his results from his MRI and it showed a spot on his neck that will require more testing, but his rehab is going well.

RON CONE was scheduled to return to MD Anderson last Wednesday for his skin condition, but due to the weather, has been postponed.

MARK PERKINS saw his cardiologist last week and has requested prayers for a good report and also in dealing with a personal matter.

EVAN GINES will have an evaluation on the cyst in his abdomen in 3 months.

CHARLES AND RITA BOREN, along with her sister, Kathye, and Kathye’s husband are in Glen Rose visiting their other sister, Maxine. They will all return sometime today.

SUZANNE AND SOPHIA HAMILTON are in Sugarland visiting family and will return sometime today.

BRENDA FOX, the wife of the preacher in Groesbeck, has leukemia and is in critical condition. Prayers have been requested.

Please continue to pray for all of those on both prayer lists.
