

Family News and Prayer Requests

CHARLES SURFACE, as of Thursday (11/2), and after several delays, is in Seton Hospital, Room 371, in Austin to have his dental and heart valve surgeries. After his release, he will be in the New Braunfels Regional Rehab. All prayers are appreciated.

RON CONE was at MD Anderson in Houston for consultation on his skin condition last week. He will return this week for special treatments on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings and then return home.

ANN BABB (former member) was scheduled to be released from Christian Care rehab yesterday. Her son, Bill, will be staying with her 24/7 for the time being.

DAVID AND HEATHER BOREN have moved to the Central TX Children's Home in Buda where they will be relief house-parents. He hopes to be able to preach occasionally at area churches.

KATRINA MUNN, Kristy Stanfield's daughter, has moved to Canyon Lake. Now, Kristy will be able to spoil that grand baby!

There are no updates on those in hospice care, Calvin Gill, Ann Myra and Helen Thompson. Dorothy Hughes was added to that list last week.

TERRY AND DONNA SCHROEDER were a welcome sight at class Wednesday night, as they returned to Canyon Lake.

Several attended the Hymns in the Hill Country yesterday.

Please remember to keep in your prayers all of those on the Prayer list below.

MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Proverbs 15:1-4

When we think about what the Scriptures have to say about the power of the tongue, what we might think of is James 3. There we find the brother of our Lord liken the tongue to other small things that have great power such as bits in a horse's mouth, the rudder of a ship, and a spark that ignites a forest fire. Solomon also gives us reasons to control our tongue in Proverbs 15:1-4. Here are four simple points that can help us restrain our tongue this week:

We control our tongue because it can harm others ("A gentle answer turns away wrath, But a harsh word stirs up anger")

We control our tongue because we value wisdom ("The tongue of the wise makes knowledge acceptable, but the mouth of fools spouts folly")

We control our tongue because the LORD sees us ("The eyes of the LORD are in every place, watching the evil and the good")

We control our tongue because it can make or break our spirit ("A soothing tongue is a tree of life, but perversion in it crushes the spirit")
